“ I just found out that one of the new chest people on the planet passed away. Barb and I worked together at the city of Phoenix, AZ for many years. I always enjoyed her return visits from Missouri. She loved it there. My condolences to her family. She is greatly missed.

“ I am thankful for the lasting memories that I have with her. I will always love you and miss you! I am so thankful that you were able to meet my children especially my daughter who took after Jennifer with her fire red hair and even took her same middle name! I have plenty of pictures and memories that I will be so happy to share with them.
