“ *Jamie and Family,
Karen and I are so sorry for your sudden loss of your sweet mother and family Matriarch. Cherish your memories and hold them close during this trying time. In the years to come your memories will become fonder. Your whole family has the Blessed Assurance that you will meet her and your father again some glad morning. Our family will certainly keep you all in our prayers.*

“ *Never will I forget your surprise 50th Anniversary. She has been united with her sweetheart again. Her beautiful smile will always be remembered. To the family let not sorrow linger but just a while, then remember the great times with your “mom”. These memories are yours to hold near your heart for the rest of your lives.
Be sure to share them with your children and grandchildren. Let those beautiful as well as the funny memories go on forever and ever.*
