Dear Family, Even though you did not want to give up this precious lady, you are comforted by the knowledge that the promises of God in His Word are true. She is now already experiencing the wonderful glories of Heaven with the Lord Jesus Christ who loved her and died for her. This is not a permanent separation, but rather just a temporary pause in life together.... May you know the true peace and comfort that comes from Jesus Christ alone, as you go through these difficult days, weeks, and months! With our deep sympathy and many prayers, Dave & Mary Ann Cummings

I am so sorry to hear about your momma. WE will not be able to come to the funeral, but you and the family are in our thoughts and prayers. May God Bless you all. Gary & Kay Thomas

God has another Angel home! There's shouting in heaven....
