“ I am so sorry for your loss. During this sad time, please take comfort in knowing that our Heavenly Father has promised a future we have not known by means of the sacrifice of his son, Jesus Christ -John 3:16. The Bible describes the time when we will be reunited with our dear loved ones and friends at. -Isaiah 65:20-25 and John 5:28,29). In the days ahead, may your beautiful memories and these divine promises help to sustain your family and the God of comfort will be with you.

“ We are sorry we could not be there today for you all. We worked many years with Carl and we both loved him. We had lots of good times with him, great memories. There is words in a song I love & I think of Carl. "All the eyes of tthe blind wil be open, As they join the victory march of the lame, and the DEAF who's never heard the roar of thunder, will rejoice to hear the Savior call his name!

“ Our loss but heaven gained a dear friend. I will always cherish our friendship. We shared a lot of great times in the past. He taught our three children, and us how to be a great friend with signing. He sure loved to play with our sons showing them how to use their special toys.

I will miss the beautiful ear to ear smile while he asks me if I've been fishing. Rest In Peace Carl you've gained your heavenly home. You will always be dear to my heart. My condolence, and prayers to the family for the loss of your dear loved one.
