“ I had the honor of working with Cletus at the old Coke plant when it was located in uptown Jackson. He was a route driver and I was one of the truck loaders. Always a friendly guy with a great attitude with everyone. I looked up to him! Later when I got into the restaurant business, he and his wonderful bride, Lula, would frequent the restaurant. They both seemed like the perfect match - always friendly and always smiling! A rare find! I will miss you my friend! My condolences to Lula and the rest of the Angle family.
