I am very sorry for you loss, however Heaven had gained a great soul. God Bless Dawn Rhodes Lincoln

To a giant of a man, a kind caring heart, a respectful, loving husband. I always felt welcome in your home as a child and as an adult. The cookie jar was always full and we always got to help feed the calves and chickens. I loved coming there. You will be missed. Our hearts and our minds are definitely richer for knowing you. May God rest your soul and may God watch over Deanie in the days to come.

I'm saddened, of course, to note Clyde's passing. Clyde was the bass singer in the Gospel 4, for which my dad played piano. In my young eyes, he was the best bass singer ever, and I still remember a lot of the songs they sang in the early 50's. My prayers and condolences to his family.
