

Dewel Sharrock

January 7, 1934 - December 21, 2022

Dewel David Sharrock was born January 7, 1934, in Patton, Missouri, to Lona Fulton Sharrock and Noah Sharrock, the third of five children. Dewel was a brother to June, Harold "Bud", Don, and Sam Sharrock. Of these, June McGraw of Berwyn Illinois and Don Sharrock of Patton survive.

Dewel served in the Army in Korea 1956-1958.

In 1960 Dewel married Patsy Dixon Sharrock of Sedgewickville. They have one daughter, Kimberly Sharrock Ash, born 1961.

He is survived by his wife Pat, daughter Kim and son-in-law Scott Ash of Peachtree City, GA; five grandchildren Andrew (Meredith) Ash of Burlingame, CA, Aaron (Oksana) Ash of Monument, CO, Aubrey (Ben) Page of Lone Tree, CO, Anastasia Ash, and Julia Ash both of Peachtree City, GA; two great grandchildren, and one on the way; several nieces & nephews.

Dewel was a lifelong member of Reagan's Chapel Church in Patton Missouri. He belonged to the Patton Lion's Club for several years. Dewel retired from Sargent Construction Company of Fredericktown after 20 years.

Dewel had a lifelong passion for farming and raising cattle. He enjoyed watching Cardinals baseball in his later years and driving his utility vehicle around the farm to check on the cattle.
