“ I met Scott when he was still in the Air Force in Arizona. We had many fun times looking old cars and parts and sharing knowledge of them. I too was a truck driver for many years and we visited Scott a few times when we were on vacations. Whenever he would be passing near our house, on I 40, he would call and we would meet in Holbrook, AZ for some great Asian food and talk for a bit before he would get down the road again. My he rest in peace and my condolences to his family and friends.
