Uncle Frank was a wonderful person, and I loved him very much. He always gave the best hugs, and he had a wonderful smile. Keep his memory close to your heart. I am so very sorry for your loss.

Steve & Allan, So sorry to hear about Uncle Frank. I have fond memories of him during visits to Hollister. You're both in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless!

Steve I am very sorry to hear about your dad. He was always a good man and always good to me. I will keep fond memories of him.

God Bless you all at this time of sadness. We love you and will always remember that sense of humor of Franklins. With Love and Sympathy
