Sherry and Pam, so sorry about your father Glen. He was a dear friend of mine and many. He was a friend of Henry Durham and I was Henry's caregiver for 3 yrs before his passing. On a daily basis I talked to your dad at the senior citizens where I took Mr. Durham. I got a chance to meet Glen such a great caring man. He spoke of you girls a lot and loved you both dearly. He could never expect losing his wife who he adored. May he rest in peace now with Maxine, a beautiful woman he admired and loved so much. I will miss Glen but no more suffering, God bless you all and all who loved him.

My thoughts and prayers are with Pam & her family at this time of loss.

Randy and Debbie, I am sorry to learn of the passing of your Uncle Glen. Please know if he received the Lord then he is now in great hands. Cousin Lee
