“ I'm so sorry to hear about Helen's passing. She was a patient of mine several times at St. Francis in radiology. We all loved it when she came in. She's such a sweet Christian woman. We all loved to see what she would be wearing and what color her nails would be. I last saw her a week ago Monday. She knew her time on Earth was drawing near and she was at complete peace with it. She said she knew she was dying but didn't know how long it would take. I told her God is the only one who knows that, and she agreed. She was ready to be pain-free and with her maker. I know nothing can take away your grief, but maybe knowing this will give you some comfort. We will all miss Helen. Keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers
