Heaven gained a beautiful shining star as Helen crossed over. Our loss of this dear, dear person did not end at death. Her love, and smile wil leave an indelible imprint in our memories forever. I was truly blessed to have my life enriched by having shared a friendship with her. We had a lot of great laughs, and shared the joy as I found out I was expecting my first born. We worked together on my first job, and she helped me to believe in myself. The entire family has my deepest condolences on your loss. She loved and talked of her family so often. May God keep you close, and your memories forever. Thank you for sharing your dear loved one. Phyllis
