“ My thoughts are with you all this morning as you lay your mom to rest. My favorite memories of her are when Pam and I would visit and she treated me like one of her own. She could take the simplest ingredients and make delicious meals and snacks that left you craving more. Will I miss her? Yes, but not too much. Because I see her qualities in every one of you. She did well. I pray that your memories support you through this time of sorrow. Love you all.
