Sorry for the loss of your brother, Russ

Uncle Russell- It's Mark Robert's ex-wife from Illinois! I was very saddened to hear of Uncle Jesse's death. Mark & I remain very close and I know by speaking to him that he was torn up as well. I found this site by coincidence and I know that once I tell him about it, you will be hearing from him. God Bless to you and the rest of the family.

Dear family, My name is Tom Seibert. Larry Ruhs and I have for the past 7 3/4 years led a Bible study in ISP. (Russel, I believe that you have talked with Larry.) I just found this website this morning as I prepare to do a memorial service for Jesse tomorrow in ISP. I want you to know that it has been a privilege and an honor to study the Word of God with Jesse. Jesse was a spiritual inspiration to me and I shall always treasure my shared life experience with him. Larry and I requested and were granted a visit with Jesse in hospice on October 7th. I don't know if Jesse knew we were there or not, but the Lord blessed us one more time with the opportunity to pray with and for Jesse and sing to him about his Redeemer. Jesse last joined us in class on September 23rd. In that class one of our questions in the homework was "What does the name Jesus mean to you?" Jesse's weak voiced body answered "Everything -Everything". Please accept our condolences. Tom Seibert Larry Ruhs
