“ My deepest condolences to "Dicks" family! He was an employee of mine at my dry cleaners and laundry mat in Seminole Fl during the late 1980's.

First he was a good customer with whom we'd chat about this and that the whole time. He was very easy to talk with. Then he became a great employee and friend. He was considerate, loyal and hard working. We would laugh about what we found in people's "dirty laundry" !

He became a trusted confidant and often dog sat for my sheep dog Nigel.

I regret we lost touch several years after I sold the business.

He was a genuinely good person for whom I have very fond memories no matter how much time had passed since we the last time we'd seen each other. I felt there was something missing in his life, as he would at times seem lonely.

I always wished he'd find someone with whom he would be able to share his life.

He certainly deserved his home in heaven.

God Bless and keep you safe my friend.

With fond and funny memories.

Michael
