Lula will be missed by all who knew and loved her. She was a great friend to Grandma Bessie, Mom, and to all of us Shirley kids. I loved the walk down the gravel road from Grandmas house to Lulas for a visit, maybe a summer haircut, and a trip to the creek. She loved and appreciated nature, and taught me it is important to stop and smell the roses. Grandma's favorite hymn was In the Garden, and that is where I hope she and Lula will meet again. My sincere sympathy to her family and friends.
