“ Maggie was such a beautiful girl and I say girl because she was young at heart. I’ve known her for probably 5 years or so. And she was so strong, the trials and losses she had in her life didn’t get her down because she trusted in Jehovah to help her and knew that with each loss she had the promise of the resurrection and would see her loved ones again. We have that promise now too to keep us going, it’s found at Acts 24:15 and at John 5:28,29 Jesus himself said there will be a resurrection and all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Maggie is resting now but soon we’ll hear her soft voice again and see her smile. It’s just around the corner.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family. I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort through the loving and happy memories of your dear loved one, Miss Maggie. May you also look to our loving Heavenly Father, the GOD of all comfort, to provide what you need at this very sad time. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4, Psalms 83:18). He promises us that very soon, "He will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Revelation 21:3,4, Isaiah 33:24. He also promises us that there will be a resurrection of our loved ones that we have lost in death, and they will have the opportunity to live forever in perfect health in Paradise right here on earth. (John 5:28,29, Psalms 37:10,11). What wonderful promises! Can you imagine a time on earth when there will be no more sickness, pain or death? May all of God's promises give you a measure of comfort, peace, hope and strength. I have personally found very comforting information on jw.org.
