“ The Schmidgall family have been both family friends to my family, and part of our church family for years. Through those years, Mark and I had become good friends, as well as brothers in Christ. Eventually, we came to work together at the Pinckneyville NAPA Auto Parts. We had a lot of fun working together, and also had many deep Bible discussions, mostly on the topic of Bible prophecy. We would listen to the Marlin Maddox show on the radio, and discuss the conspiracies and secret agendas that are corrupting our nation. But most of all, we were friends. I hated when our paths took different directions, and we weren't as close as we once were, and I regret that at this very moment. My heart felt condolences go out to Lynn & the kids, & their families, & to Pattie & Roxanne and their families. I love you all, & my thoughts & prayers are with you.
