“ *Brad, Carla and respective families:
We are continuing to lift you in prayer as you walk through these days. It has been a difficult few years and so sorry you have had to pass through this part of the life process. God gives us strength and comfort from His Word. Thank you for taking care of my only brother, your Dad so well. We have weathered many storms but have some very special memories as well. I will cherish these memories.
Our love and prayers.
