“ My friend, Joan, or Joanie as I called her was such a positive and uplifting lady to know. She loved people especially her sisters and brothers in Christ. One couldn't help but to be entertained when one was in her presence.....she had such a lovely demeanor and a vivacious personality.....to know Joanie was to love her. I haven't visited w/ my friend as she has been residing in a nursing home and I often wished I had at least called Joanie much more often than I did. I feel badly as now I can no longer hear her sweet voice. I hope those who read this will do better by those they care for and love than I did. She was a precious soul who had lost her (2) precious loves during her lifetime.....her husband who had passed away much too soon and their only child, Stephen, who passed away in 2009. Joanie, I will miss you just knowing you are no longer here, but feel happy that you are resting in peace and comfort in God's Paradise awaiting your entry into God's Heavenly Kingdom. I love you, my precious friend. 💖
