“ Jack and family, we are so very sorry for your loss and the pain you're feeling. Keeping you all in prayer for comfort and peace not only now but through the upcoming lonely times. Nina was such a joy to know. She always made me smile, Jack, when the two of you were at our house when you were building our new cabinets. You always knew where you stood with her, and I loved her stories of how you met and your life together. I know you have precious memories...may they sustain you through the difficult times -- as long as you have your memories, you'll always have your Nina.
