Faye, Tammy and family, I'm so sorry ,I didn't know That sister Opal had gone home.I've been missin' the church family,her included,of course. One of the last times I drove by her house on the way to visit Don's grave,I saw her watching out the door,looking kinda worried and lost. I remember I prayed for her the rest of the day.I remember the first time I met her at church,I just had to be related to somebody,and since my niece,Cheryl Lynn is married to Bro. Steven's youngest brother,Randy Joe, she came to the conclusion that I had to be related to Bro. Steven.:) I'll miss knowing she isn't there at her house now,but,I'm happy she is with our Lord,your daddy and Jess. May the God of all comfort wrap His loving arms around your whole family and give you peace in knowing she's free at last . With all my love, Ruth
