“ Penny when I saw you a few months ago you looked well! Today when I hugged Shane the tears rolled out of my eyes for you and your Family! I have been praying for healing for you for months! Just to make you laugh Penny when you and Shane came and put new carpet in my house after the Flood the Wap was afraid of the dogs. You had a calming way of making sure the dogs were good! Then you told me of your pet Squirrel it made me laugh so hard! God has you now my dear Lady! Praying for Shane and the Family! Would you like donations to Cancer Research, Saint Judes or the Humane Society in lieu of flowers? Fly High Angel you are well now! Love Laurie, Gabe, Romi, Roger and Mia Martin

“ I know there are no words that can be said to take away what you are feeling right now. I understand the emotional roller coaster you are feeling. Sincerely, I am sorry for your loss as well as Penny's family's loss. May the Lord comfort and provide what you need during this time of loss. Keeping you in my prayers....

Love you, Aunt Rosa

“ I wish I knew what to say... To lose someone so young and vibrant has shook us all to the core. Rest assured you will be greatly missed, but the memories we shared, from Haunted Valley Day, to New Years Eve Resolutions, to all the days of laughter will live on in our hearts and minds. Love you Penny!
