“ My big brother was my heart and soul after Mom & Dad passed. Our RVing trips were awesome bringing us all closer together. I only wish we could have travelled more. I hope Jimmy Drake, Don Bogers, the Geskes & Oker boys all remember the good times at Maynard’s Pool hall and the shenanigans they all got into together.

Bob was lucky to be a truck driver, fireman, cowboy and rodeo enthusiast even if he didn’t plan on riding broncs. He made everyone laugh or smile with his colorful stories. He had a temper but usually was the biggest teddy bear anyone wanted to meet. I will miss you so much Robert and our weekly phone calls. Tears fill my eyes as I remember all the good and bad times life presented us. Go home now and rest eternally in Heaven. Much love and hugs,

Jeanine
