Bobby, Roberta, Kimberly, Jackie, and Caroline: Your dad was one of the gentlest, kindest, most considerate men ever. He always made me feel important. I will always think of him as a true gentleman farmer who loved his family and his neighbors. When I was a next-door neighbor to him, I used to sell "True Grit" weekly newsletters for 15cents and he always bought one from me! You were fortunate to have such a wonderful father! Larry (Bobby & Jackie's 4th grader teacher)

Our remembrances and prayers are with Robert and all the members of his family.
