Memorial contributions may be made to the Southeast Missouri Hospice Care. I am praying for you all, cause I know where you all are at right now ,cause I lost my mother in 2004. May God feel your hearts with peace and comfort, because we know if we continue to live for God till we make it home we will get to be with Roxie again one day. We will miss her very much, she was a wonderful lady. God Bless!.

Roxie, I love you and your family. You were a wonderful mother-in-law. You will be missed. I wish I could have visited with you again. You have been in my thoughts a lot lately and Carrie and Amanda kept me informed on what was going on with you. Love Susan
