“ U have been on my mind an heart a lot here lately grandma!! It's not the same with out u here!! It seems like it was just yesterday when left us an went to heaven.. everything is so different now.. I wished u was still here with us.. bc I know everything would b a lot better if u was.. u always had a way to make us smile when we was sad.. an when we we was mad u would try an make us happy an if u couldn't make us happy u would pick on us an give us he just to aggravate us even more.. I sit here an think about all the memories we had with u.. an god how I miss them days.. I remember down at ur old house when I was a kid me and mom got in to a fight an I tried to run away from mom an u chased me from the front door to the the back door not letting me get out the door to run away.. so I got on the floor an threw a fit an the next thing I new u was on the floor with me (acting) like u was having a fit with me.. boy it made mad back then... but now I sit here an laugh about it bc I know u now that u was just playing with me an trying to get me n better mood an to where I wouldn't try to run away.. wow that was so many years ago... God how much I miss an,love u grandma an would give anything just to see u an talk to u one more time... our family isn't the same since u left an went home... I know I'll get to see you again grandma an I know an understand it was time for u to go on home an be with Jesus to ur new happy home with no pain an suffering anymore.. love you grandma... sending my love an kisses an hugs up to u...
