Dear Vicki and family, Steven's children, I had talked with Steve the last week of Jan. I had asked him to call me after some appointments he was to have around the 7th -8th of Feb. He told me he would call to give me an update. I came home today, I was going to look his number up on my computer, but had a email from Bernard Holler. I am sicken and saddened. I am so sorry for him and all of us. My love to you. Your cousin, Kenneth R. Bridges

I remember Steve and vicky when my parents Marge and Bernie would play cards at Stanley and Doris' house. I remember the lamp with the red car that seemed to drive and the love in home. I will be thinking of you folks and leave with best wishes and condolences to the girls and Vicky and Carl, With much love and fond thoughts, Cindy
