“ Harold, Carolyn, Donna and family, Iâ€™m so sorry to hear about Thelma. She was such a sweet lady. I have vivid memories of her from the age of 14 when you guys took me to Castor River for Donnaâ€™s birthday, to my 1st trip to Six Flags with you when we were teenagers, all those Sunday dinners at Gramma Rhodes house and when Harold would speed up and drop off those hills on the way out on those two line blacktop country roads I never heard her fussed at him. I donâ€™t remember her ever saying a harsh word to anyone. She was just a top notch person! She will be greatly missed, but her spirit will live on in Jesus name!
