“ Death has finally come to my generation with the death of my cousin, Thomas (Tom) Kneemiller. As I enter the twilight years of my life, what bothers me the most is the loss of so many relatives and friends. Those days of yesteryear are just memories. I never gave much thought of my own mortality before but as I have aged, I have become more mindful and its effects. I am not ready to see my generation disappear and memories to fade away.

The Bible tells us in the book of Ecclesiastes chapter 3, 1 To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: We see this truth in the seasons of spring, summer, fall and winter. Likewise, this truth is true with our lives. 2 A time to be born, and a time to die; . . . 4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; . . .

Tom’s time has come and gone. He was born November 13, 1954. He died February 12, 2018, at the age of 63. His death has come much too soon. It seems just like yesterday that we were kids, teens and young adults. Getting old seemed like an eternity away. However, we would discover that Life passes by quickly. We find asking ourselves, “Where has time gone?” In fact, we are now in what many call the “golden years,” just a moment in time before we enter the dawn of our lives. We now look back and reflect upon our life and how we lived it.

Romans 8:28 tells us that God calls each of us according to His purpose. Tom’s life had meaning and purpose, just as ours. Each of us can count how Tom touched our lives and the lives of others. He was kind, loving, friendly and respectful. His laughter was infectious. He always had a smile. He was one of a kind.

I looked up Tom’s name and found he was identified as being a Christian. As a Christian we have placed our Faith, Hope and Trust in God, our Father. God promised us in John 14:2, In my Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so. I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. Our prayer is that we too will dwell in our Father’s house for eternity.

We all have laughed and we all have danced. Now it is time to weep, and time to mourn. Thank you, God, for giving us Tom. May God bless and be with Tom J. Kneemiller forever and ever.
