“ I've known Todd since I was about 4 years old we didn't see each other for many years but we got to know each other very close again throughout the last six or seven years. He was a wonderful friend he was one of them people the one you are around him he could truly make you feel alive and he was adventurous and very loyal he will be missed so much by his children as brothers and sisters and his friends and including myself may you rest in peace Todd.
