Velma Mae Webb from Marble Hill, who was 88 and 11 months young, passed away Tuesday, November 4, 2014 at the Saint Francis Medical Center. She was born December 4, 1925 at Lutesville to Joseph Edward and Delphia Louise Bollinger Harris of Lutesville.

She was married to Collin Johnson in 1944 who preceded her in death, then she married Doyle Edward Webb in 1951 and passed away in 1981. Mae is survived by one son, Collin Edwin Johnson and wife Linda of Wappapello, MO; two daughters Ellie Johnson Cook of Patton; and Diana Cook and husband Eddie of Marble Hill; with 16 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren; 6 great-great-grandchildren and 2 "on the way". Mae had a daughter Evelyn Martin, a son Dodgie Webb, a grandson Lil Dodgie and a great-grandson Austin that preceded her in death.

Mae was a truck driver for many years with her husband Doyle, and was proud if this she could tell story after story and sometimes over and over to us but was always interesting.

Mae also known as Aunt Mae to so many....was a woman no one would forget. Her nieces and nephews and her great nieces and nephews were always proud of Aunt Mae!

Also she was "Granny" to so many friends besides family.

She was also preceded in death by her parents, five brothers and two sisters.

Visitation will be Friday, November 7, 2014 from 5:00 to 8:00 PM at the Liley Funeral Home in Marble Hill.

Funeral Services will be Saturday, November 8, 2014 at 10:00 AM at the Funeral Home with Rev. Jack Faries and Sister Diana Cook officiating. Interment will follow in the Leslie Ridge Cemetery near Marble Hill.
